

Welcome to Australia

by kye, Cameron, ben

Contents

Page 1-2 Australian slang

Page 3 Australian animals

Page 4 Traditional Instruments

Page 5 Australian Food

Page 6 Our Website (phone numbers and digital copy)

Australian slang

- Ace! – excellent!
- Ankle biter – small child
- Apples, she'll be – it'll be all right
- Arvo – afternoon
- Aussie (pronounced 'Ozzie') –Australian
- Aussie salute – brushing away flies with the hand
- Back of Bourke – a very long way away
- Barbie or BBQ – barbecue (noun)
- Big smoke – a big city, especially Sydney or Melbourne
- Bikkie – biscuit
- Billabong – an oxbow lake cut off by a change in the river
- Bloke – man, guy
- Bloody – very (bloody hard yakka)
- Bloody oath! – that's certainly true
- Blowie – blow fly
- Bludger – lazy person,
- Bog in – commence eating
- Bonzer – great, ripper
- Bottler – something excellent
- Bush telly – campfire
- BYO: refers to Bring Your Own – often wine at a restaurant or food to an event
- Cactus – dead, not functioning
- Corker – something excellent.
- Cozzie – swimming costume
- Cranky – in a bad mood, angry

- Crook – sick, or badly made
- Cut lunch – sandwiches
- Dag – a funny person
- Daks – trousers
- Dinkum, fair dinkum – true, real, genuine
- Dipstick – a loser, idiot
- Down Under – Australia and New Zealand
- Dunny – outside toilet
- Earbashing – nagging
- Esky – insulated food/drink container for picnics, barbecues etc. • Fair dinkum – true, genuine
- Fair go – a chance
- Footy – Australian Rules football
- Full – drunk
- Furphy – false or unreliable rumour
- G'Day – hello!
- Galah – fool, silly person (also the proper name for a type of bird)
- Give it a burl – try it, have a go
- Good onya – good for you, well done
- Grouse (adjective) – great, terrific, particularly good

Australian animals

1. Cane Toad
2. Red-Eyed Tree Frog
3. Turtle Frog
4. White-Lipped Tree Frog
5. Black Swan
6. Bowerbirds
7. brolga
8. Budgerigar
9. Cassowary
10. Emu
11. Fairy Penguin
12. Gala
13. Kookaburra Barramundi
14. Common Stingaree
15. Great White Shark
16. Murray Cod
17. Queensland Lungfish

Traditional Instruments

Didgeridoo.

Clapsticks.

Gum leaf.

Bullroarer.

Rasp.

Australian food

Vegemite.

Fairy Bread.

Tim Tams!

Meat Pies.

Anzac Biscuits.

Pavlova.

Helplines for refugees

These are phone numbers you need to know so that when something bad happens, you can call them.

1. Triple Zero - Police, Fire and Ambulance Emergency
Number: 000
2. State Emergency Services: 132 500
3. Health Direct Hotline: 1800 022 222
4. Poisons Info Line: 13 11 26
5. Breastfeeding Helpline: 1800 686 268
6. Pregnancy, Birth and Baby Helpline: 1800 882 436
7. Crime Stoppers: 1800 333 000
8. Police Assistance: 131 444

Our website

Visit <https://ausrefugee.pages.dev> for a digital copy of this book and for the phone numbers.